

Anger Kills

Discussion Questions

1. Think of a time when you were angry.
 - a) How was your will crossed (how did you not get what you want)?
 - b) Did your anger spread to someone else?
 - c) What was the outcome?
 - d) How could choosing love have changed things?

2. Have you ever been angry at God? How was your faith impacted?

3. Is there any relationship in your life where there is anger present? Spend some time in prayer about this. How is God asking you to approach that relationship?

4. Has there ever been a time that love has overcome your own anger? What was it about the love you experienced that allowed that to happen?

5. How has the COVID-19 pandemic impacted your anger? Are you angrier or less angry? Is your fuse shorter? Is there something, in particular, that is angering you?

6. How can you choose love the next time you are angry at someone?

7. Are you angry at God right now? Read Isaiah 55.
 - a) What is God asking of you in your anger towards him?