

The Collateral of Our Words

Discussion questions 5/3/20

Please listen to this song and then answer the next questions.

[copy and paste the following into a browser window]

<https://youtu.be/M8dajC6g9hU?list=RDM8dajC6g9hU>

1. When you exaggerate or minimize a story, why do you?
2. How do you feel and what do you think when someone is exaggerating or minimizing a story they are telling you?
3. Why might they do that?
4. What do you think of this song and why?
5. What makes it hard for you to keep your word?
6. What did you learn about Jesus today and what it means for him to say yes?
7. When did you say your first yes to Jesus? Have you been able to keep letting your yes be yes?
8. What do you think it means, “let your yes be yes and your no be no. Anything beyond this is of the evil one?
9. What is the “collateral” of your yes or no?
10. Is there anything we can do to help you with the yeses and noes you might need to make? (Please fill out a connection card on the web site!)